PRIME HAMS, first quality, and reasonable in price, can be had at KALBFLEISCH'S.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

AND

Hoofland's German Tonic.

THE GREAT REMEDIES

FOR ALL DISEASES OF

THE LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medically termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixtures of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

Hoofland's German Bitters.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

Hoofland's German Tonic.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medical virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

CONSTIPATION, FLATULENCE, INWARD PILES, FULLNESS OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, NAUSEA, HEART-BURN, DISGUST FOR FOOD, FULLNESS OR WEIGHT IN THE STOMACH, SOUR ERUCTATIONS, SINKING OR FLUTTERING AT THE PIT OF THE STOMACH, SWIMMING OF THE HEAD, HURRIED OR DIFFICULT BREATHING, FLUTTERING AT THE HEART, CHOKING OR SUFFOCATING SENSATIONS WHEN IN A LYING POSTURE, DIMNESS OF VISION, DOTS OR WEBS BEFORE THE SIGHT, DULL PAIN IN THE HEAD, DEFICIENCY OF PERSPIRATION, YELLOWNESS OF THE SKIN AND EYES, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK, CHEST, LIMBS, ETC., SUDDEN FLUSHES OF HEAT, BURNING IN THE FLESH, CONSTANT IMAGININGS OF EVIL, AND GREAT DEPRESSION OF SPIRITS.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,

Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposures, Fevers, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into the veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK & DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietors, but space will allow of the publication of but few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.

Hon. Geo. W. Woodward,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:

Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.

"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in he system. Yours truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD."

Hon. James Thompson,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.

"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,

JAMES THOMPSON."

From Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates St.

From Rev. E. D. Fendall,

Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philada.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from deseases arising from derangement of the liver. Yours truly,

E. D. FENDALL.

Albright, Reikes & Schmidt,

Knabe & Son. Gale & Son,

ESTEY'S CELEBRATED

COTTAGE, HARMONIC AND BOUDOIR ORGANS AND MELODEONS.

These Instruments stand unrivalled by anything found in this country or in Europe, as is admitted by all impartial judges. The most eminent Pipe Organ Builders and Performers, the last to discover excellence in reed Tone, pronounced them vastly superior to all others for exceedingly quick articulation and round Tone, the essential feature in instruments of this class. We invite the severe scrutiny and criticism of all.

PATENT VOX HUMANA TREMOLO.

This late and most wonderful invention (so acknowledged by all leading artists) will be found only in the Estey Instruments. In attempting to describe the effect of this stop, we are at loss for language. Its beauties cannot be written, but must be heard to be appreciated. By this stop an ordinary performer can produce an effect which requires a life time of practice for an artist upon a violin. It entirely changes the reed Tone, giving the sympathetic sweetness of the human voice, making it so melodious and pure that it never fails to enchant the listener.

THE HARMONIC ORGAN

for Churches, Public Halls and Parlors has a powerful sub-Bass with independent reeds, Harmonic attachment and Vox Humana Tremolo, and is believed to be the most powerful reed organ made, being nearly equal to a Pipe Organ of three times the cost.

All instruments warranted for five years.

☞BRASS BANDS supplied with instruments and music at reasonable terms.

A liberal discount allowed for Churches and Sabbath Schools.

☞Instructions given both in Vocal and Instrumental Music, at our rooms, and at pupils' homes, either to individuals or classes, on reasonable terms.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every county and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure —

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change these complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

AUTUMN'S LATEST HOUR.

Steadfast still in his place
Autumn stands sadly alone, brown of the hand and the face,
The sickle across his arm is spotted with rusty red,
And the crown of poppies is torn that circled about his head.

Slowly he lifts his look;
All is change around—a stain of clay in the brook;
The sombre fields are all reaped, and bare of the harvest sheaves;
In the orchard the last apples drop with sudden fall through the leaves.

The gardens are listless with cold;
The clustering lichens creep out in crowds on the wet black mole;
The lingering flowers droop faint as their faded petals fall;
And the mortar crumbles away in patches from off the wall.

The days are silent and still,
Through the dull, thick air comes slow the shepherd's call from the hill;
Gray cloud skies lower and gloom over all the country and town,
Except for a streak of red where the evening sun goes down.

The nights are bitter and black!
With mists for the riverside and mire for the meadow-track,
The screech-owl hoots through the wood, the squirrel dreams in his lair;
And the brambles and fern grow white to the touch of the frosty air.

Autumn nigh swooning stands;
He watches with cloudy eyes the saddened change on the lands;
Till at last, without farewell—none knows if by night or day—
He lets fall his basket and hook and suddenly passes away.

Autumn is gone indeed!
Well, we must all go soon—leaf, and flower and seed,
After the time to grow, the time to gather must be—
Happy all they whose eyes are open both times to see.

WANTED AT THE CROSS-ROADS.

I was in a hurry to reach home. No wonder, for it was the wildest night I had ever known in all my life, and the country over which I took my way as bad and dark as country roads in general. Consequently, I was walking at a great rate, with the collar of my rough coat over my ears, and a comforter tied over my soft hat and under my chin to keep it warm and protect my ears, when suddenly a man stood full in my path and caught me by the arm.

"Halloa!" said he, "you're just in time. You are wanted at the cross-roads to-night."

The voice was the voice of a ruffian. I fancied myself attacked by a highwayman. I stood quite still and tried to show him by my manner that I was able to protect myself.

"What in the deuce am I wanted at the cross roads for?" said I. "Unless I chose, it would be a very hard matter to get me there."

But, instead of producing a pistol and demanding my money or my life, the man answered in an altered tone:

"Beg pardon; I made a mistake. I thought it was my brother, and I wanted to frighten him. Bad night, sir."

"Very," said I.

"You don't know the time, sir?" he asked.

"It was seven when I left the train at L——," said I.

"Thank ye, sir," said the man. "Good night."

"Good night," said I.

If his object had been robbery, probably he had decided from my rough appearance that I was too poor a man to be worth the trouble. But, after all, I thought that probably he had spoken the truth. A man may have such a voice without being a highwayman, no doubt.

So I went on homeward, and soon found myself under shelter, and partaking of a warm and savory supper. My mother was there, and my brother Ben. Ben was a great strapping fellow who could beat any other boy of his age for miles around, if it came to wrestling or boxing, and as good-humored a boy as ever lived—a boy always to mother and me, though he had exercised his right to vote already in our Presidential election. The moment Ben's head touched the pillow he always fell asleep. That night I followed his example. But I did not sleep long without a dream—a dream in which I felt a rough grip on my arm, and was aroused by a cry in my ears:

"Wake up! You are wanted at the cross-roads—"

It was so real, so palpable that when I started broad awake I actually believed that some one was in the room; the man who had met me on the road perhaps, and who had intended robbery and violence. But when I had arisen and lit my lamp, the room was empty, except myself and Ben, who lay snoring on the pillow.

I went to the door; it was locked. I went to the window; the rush of rain against the panes was all I heard. I even went across the passage to my mother's room. She was awake; there had been no unusual sound, she was sure.

Only a dream born of my meeting the strange man in the road I felt had awakened me. I went to bed and fell asleep again. Again I was awakened by the same words, this time shrieked in my ear by an unearthly voice—

"Wake up, wake up. You are wanted at the cross-roads."

I was on my feet once more, and caught Ben's hand as he came over toward my bed.

"What ails you?" he cried.

"Nothing," said I. "Did you hear a voice?"

"Yours," said Ben, "yelling 'wake up.' You fairly frigthened me."

"Ben," said I, "wait till I light the lamp. I heard another voice; there must be some one in the house or outside."

So I again lit the lamp; but we searched in vain.

"Nightmare," said Ben, when I told him the story.

"Ben," said I, "what is there at the cross-roads?"

"A house," said Ben. He had lived in the neighborhood a long while, and I not long.

"A house, besides two oak trees and a fence. An old man lives there—a rich man and a bit of a miser, they say. His grand daughter keeps house for him."

"Ben, that fellow may have meant harm to them. I may be wanted at the cross-roads."

"Brother," said Ben, "go to sleep. You had a nightmare," and Ben plunged in between the blankets, and was soon snoring again.

I also in ten minutes slept as soundly as before, but the awakening soon came again.

I opened my eyes to see a girl standing at the foot of my bed. A girl in white robes, with golden hair all about her shoulders, who rung her hands and exclaimed:

"Oh, wake up, you are wanted at the cross-roads."

This time I started out of bed, bathed in a cold perspiration. I had no doubt but that I had received supernatural warning.

"Ben," I cried, "Ben, for the third time I have been told that I am wanted at the cross-roads, and I am going."

And I began to dress myself as speedily as possible, listening the while to the storm raging wilder than it had at any time since its commencement. Ben remonstrated with me in vain. At last he also began to huddle on his clothes.

"If you have gone mad, I must go with you to take care of you," he said.

"But fancy another man going out in a storm like this to the cross-roads because a nightmare was after him, and what would you think of him?"

I said nothing. All I could have answered would have been:

"I am compelled to go; I must go; I dare not refuse, whatever may be thought of me."

In ten minutes we were splashing through the mud and the rain, along the road. It was perfectly dark; now and then a blazing red star in the distance told us that a lamp was beaming through the rain in some cottage window, but otherwise we would not have been conscious of our proximity to any habitation whatever. At last, nearing the spot where the road from S—— crosses the road to P——, we were indeed in as solitary a place as can be imagined.

The house, which abutted on the very angle of the roads, called in familiar parlance the Cross-Roads, was the only one for some distance in either direction, and certainly on such a night we were not likely to meet with any travelers. All was quiet as the grave. We stood quite still. In a moment Ben broke out into one of his wildest laughs.

"Well," he said, "how now? Will you go home and have another nightmare?"

But hardly had the words escaped his lips when a shriek broke on the air, and a woman's voice, plainly coming from the interior of the cottage, cried:

"Help! help! help!"

"Ben," said I, "we are wanted at the cross-roads," and then understanding each other, without more words we made our way to a window through which a light was shining. A muslin curtain draped the panes, but through it we saw an awful sight.

An old man lay on the floor, and over him bent a ruffian, clutching his throat and holding a pistol to his ear, while another grasped the shrieking girl by the arm—a girl in a floating night dress—with such long golden hair as belonged to the girl of my vision.

Not a moment was to be wasted. Ben flung his weight against the slender lattice, and crushed it in, and we had grappled the ruffians before they knew whence the attack came or how many foes were upon them.

I do not intend to describe the struggle; indeed I could not if I would. But we were strong men, and, inspired by the cries of the helpless old man and the terrified girl, we soon had one of the villains bound and the other lying prostrate on the floor. Then Ben started for assistance, and, before morning, both were in jail, Ben admitting, as we shook each other by the hand, that "we were wanted at the cross-roads."

The old man was not a miser, but he had saved some few thousand dollars for his old age, and, living more plainly than he need have done, had given rise to the rumor, and so brought the burglars to the cross-roads in the hope of booty.

The girl, a beautiful creature of seventeen, was his grand daughter, and, as no story is acceptable to the lady reader without a flavor of romance, I will tell them that she became, in after years, not my wife, but the wife of my dear brother Ben.

SAVED HIS BACON.

Our regiment, at one time, was stationed at Sedalia, Mo. While here the boys very frequently helped themselves to fresh pork. One day some of the boys of company "B" were on picket. Pork, for some reason, had been scarce that day, and it was not until nearly dark that they had an opportunity to "salt a hog," which proved to be a fine specimen of the swine family. They were just preparing to dissect it, when one of the boys, looking up, saw the colonel but a short distance off, coming toward them. Here was a dilemma. The boys hurried back to their post, leaving Jo, who, as the boys said, had a knack of getting out of a scrape. Jo was equal to the emergency. Taking an overcoat and throwing it over the hog, Jo sat down and pretended to be keeping the flies off with his hat. The colonel rode up to Jo and inquired if the boy was sick. Jo answered that he was. The colonel told Jo to hail a wagon that was passing and take him to camp, which Jo accordingly did, when the colonel had passed out of sight. The next morning the colonel received a nice quarter of fresh pork, and a note stating that the "boy" had died, but they had managed to save his bacon.

"ONE OF THE BOYS."—A youngster came home after having a glorious time in the puddles, his face all aglow, and his rubber boots full of water. The punishment of staying in the house for the remainder of the day did not seem very hard at first; but as his little heart warmed up with the recollection of the triumphs of the morning when he had waded deeper than any of his playmates dared to, he could bear the restraint no longer, and went to his mother, saying, "Please, mother, whip me, and let me go out again."

WOMAN'S RIGHTS.—They have been holding a Woman's Rights Convention in Boston. A set of old maids and termagant wives want to vote, and to perform other unfeminine things.—Fred Douglass, the negro, was one of the spouters on the occasion.

FRIGHTENED BY A GONG.

We have heard a funny story told of a young fellow residing in one of the tobacco growing counties of Virginia, who recently made his first visit to Richmond, the capitol of the "Old Dominion," for the purpose of selling his crop, seeing the sights and rubbing off some of the rust which his back woods "fetching up" had thrown upon his manners.

He reached Richmond about the middle of the forenoon, and was fortunate in selling his crop at an advantageous rate and almost immediately. Meeting with and old school-fellow—one who had lived in the city long enough to know its ways—he was advised to take up his lodgings at Boyden's, the crack house of the place; and thither at once he went with his baggage. Just before dinner his friend called to see him, and found him comfortably located in a room just at the head of the stairs. It was close upon dinner time.

"Suppose we take something to start an appetite," said the chap who had just come down.

"Agreed," rejoined the city friend "a glass of wine and bitters for me."

"Let's go down to the bar and get it; dinner's most ready," continued the tobacco grower.

"We might as well have it up here," was the rejoinder.

"Good lick; but how are we to call for it?"

"Ring that bell there."

"What bell?"

"Pull that rope hanging there."

The young man laid hold of the rope and gave it a jerk, and just at that moment the gong sounded for dinner. Never had he heard such a sound before, and the rumbling crash came upon his ear with a report that stunned him. He staggered back from the rope, raised both hands in horror, and exclaimed:

"Great Jerusalem, what a smash! I've broke every piece of crockery in the house! There ain't a whole dish left! You must stick by me, old fellow," addressing his friend, "don't leave me in this scrape, for the whole crop won't half pay the breakage. What did you tell me to touch that cursed rope for?"

But before his friend, who was all but bursting with laughter, could answer, a servant entered the room with

"Did you ring the bell, sir?"

"Bell? no, d—n your bell; I never touched your bell in my life; what bell? I never saw your bell."

"Somebody rang the bell of this room, that's certain," continued the servant.

"No, they didn't. There's nobody here that ever saw a bell!—and then turning to his friend, exclaimed aside, "let's lie him out of it; I shan't have a cent to go home if I pay the entire damage. What do they get such rascally traps as that for, to take folks in from the country?"

After a violent fit of laughter, the friend was enabled to explain that it was only the gong sounding for dinner—a simple summons "to walk down to soup," got up on the Chinese plan. They made their way to the dining room, but it was some time before the young tobacco grower could get over the stunning and awful effects of that dreadful gong. "It was a God-send," he said, "that the crash did not turn my hair gray on the spot."

The New Dining Cars on the Chicago and St. Louis Railroad.

The present week has seen fully initiated a new and marked era in railway annals, in the introduction of the Pullen dining cars on the Chicago and St. Louis route. It was that energetic and wide-awake management that earliest co-operated with the creation and introduction of the Pullen palace system, and they were the first to realize among our American roads the full perfection of a sleeping car. After careful investigation they have now adopted the dining car as the twin feature of progress, so that hereafter passengers between Chicago and St. Louis will both lodge and feed while speeding forward on their journey. This shortens the running time to St. Louis about fifty minutes. It gives the passenger a freedom from the penalties and pains of wayside feeding-places. He can eat when he likes. He need not "get something to eat before leaving," but will reserve himself and his gastric forces against such time as he leisurely takes his seat at the elegant table and dine in a sixteen-wheeled restaurant parlor at thirty miles an hour.

The new line went into operation on Monday, and consists of the splendid new cars, "Southern," the "Tremont," and the "Brevoort," named for popular hotels. Each has two saloons that will seat twenty-four passengers on either side of the cuisine department, which occupies the centre of the car. Thus forty eight diners may be busy at one time. The car is to run in the center of the train, and is open at all hours, with a bill of fare that enables these cars to amply justify their names in the substantial reproduction of the best features of our best hotel tables, and which we reluctantly forbear presenting entire just to show what railroading has become on the prairies. The traveling public are already loud in the praises of the new system, which is certain to be a favorite on all through roads.

A GOOD ONE.—A Galveston gentleman, lately stopping at the Nicholson House, Bastrop, was in a room recently occupied by the Agent of the Freedman's Bureau. One evening, Tom, a freedman, entered the room to make fire, and after doing so sat down, crossed his legs and made himself at home, smoking and spitting in the fire-place. The Galvestonian asked him what he meant by such familiarity. Tom looked up in evident surprise, and immediately arose, hat in hand, and in his politest manner, said: "Beg pardon, Massa! didn't know you was a gemman; thought you was de Freedmen's Bureau!—News, Galveston, Texas.

"NEVER listen to flatterers," said a mother to her daughter. "Why, mother, how shall I know that they flatter without I listen?" was the quick retort of the young miss.

FRIDAY, DEC. 4, 1868.

THE RE-ASSEMBLING OF CONGRESS.—The two houses of Congress will re-assemble in the National Capitol on Monday next. It will be the last session of the Fortieth Congress, and its constitutional term will cease at noon on the 4th of March next, when the Forty-first Congress will immediately take its place, under a recent law, in order to be ready for the exigencies of the incoming administration. We suppose that on that occasion the two Houses will await the inauguration of Grant and Colfax as President and Vice President, and that then, after a formal organization, a joint committee will be sent to President Grant to report progress and inform him the two Houses are ready to receive any communication he may have to make. Thereupon, in addition to the usual inaugural address, we may look for a message to Congress foreshadowing the general policy of General Grant. Meantime, however, we may expect from President Johnson, on the re-assembling of Congress, a pretty extensive and comprehensive message.

AFTER THE ELECTION.—Since the election, Radical papers urge Congress to force negro suffrage upon all the States. Why didn't they advocate this doctrine during the campaign, and make it an issue before the people? We know the reason—neither they nor their party dared do it.

As Radical Missouri has just rejected negro suffrage by an overwhelming majority, would it be right in Congress to compel that State to accept what her people have so solemnly and emphatically declared they do not want?

Besides, do these Radical editors so soon forget that the Chicago platform, on which Grant was nominated and elected, declared that the "question of suffrage in all the loyal States belongs to the people of those States?"

To violate this pledge now would not only be brazenly dishonest, but an outrage of the most gross and indefensible character upon the rights of the States and the people.

INEQUALITY OF REPRESENTATION.—The inequality and injustice of the apportionment of members of the Legislature of this State is seen wherever we look. Luzerne county polls 750 more votes than Lancaster. Yet Luzerne has one Senator and three Assemblymen, while Lancaster has two Senators and four Assemblymen. Luzerne is Democratic and Lancaster Radical. That is why so unjust a distinction is made. Lancaster is a Congressional district, and another county is added to Luzerne. In this we have another exhibition of the palpable unfairness of the present apportionment, by which the will of the people is defeated.

SOME negroes in Washington had a meeting in that city on Thanksgiving night to consult about laying the corner stone of a Church. The colored brethren debated the subject for a while, the contest of words grew warm, the participators came to blows, nearly a hundred were speedily engaged in a regular fight, the police had to be called in, and the casualties were one negro killed outright and quite a number seriously injured. One of the officers was badly hurt and another slightly, before the belligerent black christians were reduced to order. The negroes vote and hold office in Washington. "Let us have peace."

THE Radicals have a new candidate for U. S. Senator. It is now announced that J. Edgar Thompson, Esq., President of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, has the inside track. If Mr. Thos. A. Scott is in favor of the project, and will visit Harrisburg, and stay long enough to become personally acquainted with the Republican members, we are inclined to believe he can convince the most committed man among them that Mr. Thompson is just the man for U. S. Senator.

GREAT indignation is expressed toward C. A. Washburne, American Minister to Paraguay, for permitting two Americans attached to his embassy to be arrested and imprisoned by Lopez. He has left the country and abandoned them to their fate. It is only necessary to say that he is a Radical, and values the freedom of a negro more than that of a white man, to explain his conduct.

IN Mobile the other day the lawyers and other officers attached to the United States District Court assembled, but no Judge was present. The notorious and miserably corrupt wretch, Dick Busteed, was detained at Washington to answer serious charges which have been made against him. Lincoln gave some queer specimens of Judges to Southern Courts, and Dick Busteed was one of them.

GEN. GRANT'S CABINET.—Gen. Grant recently expressed to an army friend his utter contempt of the politicians who are urging their own merits as office-holders on him. He said that he would make up his Cabinet after he had received a certificate of election, and then no one would know whom he had decided upon until their names got into print.

THE Radicals are puzzled to know how they are to frame an amendment to the Constitution of the United States that will reach the negroes, and yet leave out the Indians and the Chinese. All these classes are colored, a term used by the fanatics because they all know how distasteful the word negro is.

COL. GEO. B. WIESTLING, a prominent Radical politician of Franklin county, is out in a manifesto denouncing the editors of the Franklin Repository and their abettors in the conspiracy by which the Radical Congressional conferees from that county were carried for John Cessna.

THE question of doubling the number of cadets at West Point is being agitated in Radical circles. Who wants more military officers? We have enough of men who have seen service to officer all the soldiers we are likely to employ for years to come.

RADICAL capitalists and manufacturers have taken advantage of their success at the polls, by reducing the wages of labor and advancing the prices of merchandise and the necessaries of life.

THE Electoral Colleges met at their several State Capitols last Wednesday, and cast their votes for President and Vice President of the United States.

WILL THE REPUBLICAN PARTY SPLIT?

Not, we suppose, until after General Grant has selected his Cabinet and bestowed his other patronage. His characteristic reticence will prevent an early germination of the seeds of schism which are plentifully buried in the Republican soil.

General Grant was not, as everybody knows, the spontaneous choice of the Radical or stronger wing of the party. The so-called conservative Republicans began to push his claims early last year. They were met by a resolute opposition from the Radicals, led by the Tribune, which assailed his pretentions with scornful ridicule. General Grant's supporters desired, and were charged with covertly aiding, the defeat of the party in the State elections of last year; expecting, by such tactics, to bring the Radicals to perceive that unless they did, the Democrats would take him up, and, with the aid of his early Republican supporters, elect him. This management was successful. The Radicals were compelled to make a virtue of necessity. They where fain to be satisfied with very slender proofs that General Grant was a Republican. His complicity in the restoration of Stanton was their strongest, almost their only evidence that Grant was with them. The fact that it was their fears, and not their will, that consented to his nomination, will make a quarrel easy, if they should find that they cannot control him. His sympathies and gratitude go more naturally with the section of the party that forced his nomination.

Besides these historical grounds of distrust, there is a disconformity of mental organization between the staid, phlegmatic, taciturn, pratical General Grant, and the ardent, excitable, vehement, demonstrative, visionary Radicals and agitators. Minds so differently constituted do not view things in the same light, or reach the same evidence. So far as General Grant follows his own cool, practical, unenthusiastic judgment, he will be likely to diverge from the hot, impatient, vindictive, extravagant Radicals. This incompatibility will call differences to arise easily, and to grow rapidly when they begin, unless there should be a remarkable spirit of mutual indulgence and accommodation. As General Grant has yielded but little to secure his election, he may be inclined to yield still less and have his own way now that he is secure of his office.

The latest project of the Radicals—that of depriving the States of their control of the suffrage—is inconsistent with General Grant's letter of acceptance. The most memorable thing in that letter was its famous entreaty, "Let us have peace." He could not have meant by this a cessation of hostilities, for since his capture of Lee there have been none. If he had any meaning, it must have been that the interests of the country require a cessation of the everlasting agitation about the rights of the negro. That language pledged him—if it pledged him to anything—to maintain the status quo; to discountenance the introduction of new topics of dispute. Taking the regulation of the suffrage away from the States and giving it to the Federal Government for the benefit of the negroes, would be a new fire-brand of controversy; and if General Grant's desire for "peace" is sincere and genuine, he will be obliged to oppose it. He will have no opportunity to break with the Radicals on this question, for he will not yet be in office when Congress passes the resolution; but they will take his failure to indorse it as a sign of his secret hostility, and will distrust him accordingly.

The question of raising his salary may disclose to him who are his secret enemies in his own party, in advance of his inauguration. The project starts with the Times, the foremost advocate of his nomination previous to the election of last year. It is objected to by the Tribune, the foremost of his early opponents. We cannot believe that it will pass Congress; but it may serve the purpose of indicating to General Grant his concealed enemies. For aught we know that may be the chief object of the proposal. The applicants for office will be so much more numerous than the offices, that there is a strong temptation both to court General Grant's favor, and to excite his prejudices against rival claimants.

General Butler owes to the new President no kindness, and will be a thorn in his side. He will be always on the alert to find things that can be turned to General Grant's disadvantage; and if his sharp observation discovers that the Radicals are dissatisfied, he will be the leader of the sore-heads. He is by nature busy, factious, revengful, cunning, audacious; and as soon as it is seen in what channel the stream of patronage is to flow, he will have no difficulty in finding coadjutors in a factious bearing towards the new administration.

The Democratic party, in the meanwhile, will maintain its discipline, and wait and watch.—World.

NOT A PARTY VICTORY.—The Springfield, Mass., Republican, of a late date, says: "The result of the recent election, though it was all the Republicans could have asked, was not a triumph of the Republican party as a distinctive organization. * * * And if the victory was not achieved by the Republican party, as a political organization in its own strength and by the prestige of its name, no more does it give that party, as an organization, a new lease of power. * * * The result of the election does not indicate a popular approval even of the general policy of Congress. The election was carried in spite of that policy. Had that simple issue been presented, we very much fear every one of the four Middle States would have pronounced against it."

A WASHINGTON correspondent intimates that Simon Cameron is likely to be made Secretary of the Treasury under Grant. God save the mark!—What an appointment that would be! The man who laid the foundation of his fortune by palming off Middletown bank notes upon the Winnebago Indians—the man whom Lincoln had to turn out of the War Department to stop the wholesale plunder of the public treasury—the man whom Thaddeus Stevens described in his grimly humorous way by declaring he "would not steal a red hot stove"—such a man for Secretary of the Treasury. "Angels and ministers of grace defend us."—Lancaster Intelligencer.

HAD Horatio Seymour been elected President, would the Radicals have proposed to increase his salary to $100,000 per year? Not a bit of it!

FORT LAFAYETTE, in New York harbor, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday last. The fire is supposed to have originated through accident.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

The Harrisburg Telegraph and the Lancaster Express are both out in long editorials advocating the infamous scheme of forcing negro suffrage upon the people of Pennsylvania, by the joint action of an expiring Congress and State Legislatures elected without authority to decide such a question. We insist upon it that this outrage shall not be perpetrated.

Let the question be submitted to the people at the next election for members of the Legislature. If the members elect should dare to force it upon the people of this State, without their consent, they will dig their political graves, and consign the Republican party to destruction. A storm of popular indignation will be excited such as was never witnessed in Pennsylvania before. The Republican party would lose five white votes for every negro vote thus gained. Common political prudence would seem to demand the submission of the question of negro suffrage to the people of every State. Let it be done. Let the people, without respect to party, demand that it be done. Let petitions be circulated in every township; and let all conservative Republicans unite with the Democrats in a demand that the question be submitted to the people for their decision at the ballot box.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

COLORED REPRESENTATIVE.—There is, after all, a chance that a colored representative may have a seat in the Fortieth Congress. By the rejection of the returns of certain parishes in Louisiana, Menard, a negro, is declared elected to fill the unexpired term of Mann, Democrat, deceased. Menard will get the certificate, which will be prima facie evidence of his right to be Mann's successor, and be must be admitted to the seat, and Hunt, Democrat, who is defeated by the rejection of the returns, will have a chance to contest Menard's seat. But the original certificate of Colonel Mann having been contested by one Simon Jones, Republican, both Menard and Hunt will be ousted if Jones is successful. If not, then, provided things are done in the usual way, Menard is the sitting member by virtue of the certificate, and Hunt is the contestant. But things may not be done in the usual way. To admit Menard involves the recognition of the legality of the late election. Hence, there may or may not be a colored gentleman in the Fortieth Congress. Altogether, it is a very curiously complicated case, and involves at least half a dozen questions, including one of color.—Wash. Express, November 30.

IT is generally conceded that "the times are hard," and that before the winter closes they will be "more so." The "good time coming" when the Radical President was elected, has not yet made its appearance, and the indications are that it will not "set in" until the people have experienced more suffering and distress. Why is this? The Radicals promised all kinds of pleasant and agreeable things if they secured a new lease of power. Now that they have been successful, let us begin to have some of the benefits and blessings freely promised before the election.

MURDER OF H. RIVES POLLARD.—A despatch from Richmond, Va., Nov. 24th, says: On Saturday a report was published in the Southern Opinion, relative to the elopement of a daughter of A. M. H. Grant, a wealthy tobacconist of this city. This morning about ten o'clock, as H. Rives Pollard, the editor of the Opinion, was near his office door, at the corner of Main and Fourteenth streets, and going in, a shot was fired from an upper window of a building opposite, and Mr. Pollard fell dead, eleven buckshot having entered his body, and one passing through the heart. The Police searched the building and found James Grant, a brother of the lady named, in a room. He surrendered himself and was taken to the station-house. A double barreled gun with one barrel discharged, was found in the room. The affair creates great excitement here, and a large crowd has been gathered around the Opinion office since its occurrence.

—Grant has been admitted to bail in $10,000.

THE extreme Radicals are trying to manufacture a public opinion favorable to another impeachment of President Johnson before the 4th of March, so that old Ben Wade may be put in the Presidential chair long enough to fill all the offices. This has become necessary inasmuch as the course of Grant is not satisfactory, and it is thought much safer to fill the offices before he is inaugurated.

"A SCARECROW has been invented at Slabville, down East, of so hideous a character that the crows in the neighborhood are busily engaged in bringing back the corn they stole last summer."—Exchange.

Could a similar invention, applicable to human depredators, be stuck up at Washington, the Radical whiskey thieves, army contractors, shoddy jobbers, and general plunderers, would at once bring back enough to pay off the national debt with a large surplus in the treasury for distribution among the States.

A HARD HEARTED OLD DEMOCRAT.—A few nights since a small party were assembled in General Grant's parlor, among them Mr. Dent, his father-in-law, who lives in Missouri. Some one asked him how Missouri had voted. The old man said: "She gives Grant ten thousand majority, but I'll be d——d if he got my vote!" The General himself roared with laughter at the reply. Mr. Dent is justly proud of his Democracy.—Exchange.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.—Hon. A. Oakey Hall, Democrat, was elected Mayor of New York by 54,094, on Tuesday. The Radical candidate had only 20,000 votes. Hon Richard O'Gorman, Democrat, was elected Corporation Counsel by 53,539. The Radicals tried to make a show of strength, but failed badly.

The Democrats, the same day, also carried Hudson, N. Y., by a large majority.

BEFORE the election, Radical editors and speakers claimed that their party favored economy. Now that Grant is elected they propose to increase his salary as President from $25,000 to $100,000 per year. Does this look like economy?

MEMPHIS, Nov. 29.—Last Friday, while a girl named Kennedy was passing through the woods, she was siezed by a negro, and horribly violated.—Next morning he was found by the citizens, and identified by the child. He was taken to the scene of violence and hanged.

FOR THE COMPILER.

AFTER a few weeks' recreation, the elephant has emerged from his den with a batch of falsehoods to justify the disgraceful conduct of the colored sympathisers at East Berlin on the night of the 2d of November. "Captain Whiskey" is evidently a "dead duck" in the pond, acknowledging his inability to change his base of operations from that of a pugilistic combatant to the writer of a newspaper article, and therefore calls in one of his "aids" to do the necessary work. But what have they brought forth? They have exposed themselves, beyond escape, by the acknowledgment that the demonstrations of '63 and '66 were sufficient justification for the numerous invitations extended—no doubt calculating to collect together a sufficient number of "Plugs" to brow-beat and gag all those opposed to the colored programme. After these glaring declarations, no judge or jury, even the most ignorant wooly head, would hesitate to fix the guilty intent where it belongs.

"Nor is it deemed necessary to reply to a scurrilous remark in regard to a respected citizen," says the Star's correspondent. Oh, no!—and yet in the same breath he descends to the lowest scurrility himself! He cannot thus extricate his "Jeffersonian" friend, nor put himself in a good position by declarations of stern devotion to the "dear old flag." It was quite as ardent a Radical as he who wrote—

"Tear down the flaunting lie,
Half-mast the starry flag,
Insult no sunny sky
With Hate's polluted rag."

It would require very little historical knowledge to get at the political standing of the gentleman's ancestors during the days of the Hartford Convention, which body was engaged in throwing out blue lights as a signal to a foreign foe. Nor will any one dispute the honor due for supporting assumed "military necessities," viz: John Brown's raid, Lincoln's bastiles, Mrs. Surratt's murder, and a host of other outrages perpetrated in the interest of the "God and morality party." *

GRANT'S official majority in California is 506. Owing to an informality in printing the name of Hoffman, one of the Republican Electors, it is stated the Secretary of State refuses to certify his election, thus giving the Democrats an Elector. The matter will be submitted to the Supreme Court. Some $2,000,000 (stakes) depend upon the decision. Democrats claim the bets unless the electoral vote is unanimous for Grant and Colfax.

RICHMOND, Va., November 30.—This morning, in the United States Circuit Court, Robert Ould, counsel for Jefferson Davis, made a motion to quash the indictment against Davis, on the ground that the fourteenth amendment prescribes the mode of punishment for participation in rebellion, which is disfranchisement, and no other punishment is prescribed. The prosecuting attorney moved to pospone the motion until the latter part of the term. Chief Justice Chase decided to hear the argument on the motion on Thursday next.

THE Boston Post says that, though the President's may not be the best contrived mansion that could be built for a man and his wife, a great many respectable families are always anxious to occupy it, notwithstanding its inconveniences.

Local Department.

TOWN, COUNTY AND SURROUNDING COUNTIES.

Bridge Granted.—The Grand Jury, last week, granted a Bridge across the Conowago on the road leading from Center Mills to Hunterstown.

Lecture.—Don't forget that Rev. Dr. Morris, of Baltimore, will lecture in Agricultural Hall this evening. Subject—"How to Read," with illustrations. An unusally interesting entertainment may be expected. Dr. Morris, always an engaging lecturer, will be found peculiarly at home in the subject announced for to-night.

We take the liberty of hinting to him that his audience will expect a goodly number of "Illustrations." There is a very decided, and laudable, "hankering" in this community that way—and few, if any, can gratify it to a more general extent than he.

Lecture.—George Alfred Townsend will lecture in Agricultural Hall on the evening of the 15th—at the invitation of the College Societies. Subject—"The Pennsylvania Dutch." The papers speak of the lecture as decidedly mirth-provoking.

Lecture.—Prof. George H. Miles will deliver a Lecture in St. Vincent's Hall, Emmittsburg, on Thursday evening next, on "The Influence of Neatness and Beauty over the Growth of Towns"—for the benefit of St. Vincent's Library. We bespeak a full house. All who miss it will miss a rare intellectual treat.

New Director.—On the first Monday in November, Benjamin Deardorff, Esq., took his seat in the board of Directors of the Poor. Mr. Nunemaker went out, his term having expired. The latter made a valuable officer in all respects, and we are quite certain that Mr. D. will prove to be the same.

The New Prothonotary.—Jacob Melhorn, Esq., was sworn in and entered upon his duties as Prothonotary on Tuesday. He at once took his place in Court, and got along so well as to lead strangers to suppose he was an old hand at it.

Confirmation.—Bishop Shanahan, of the Diocese of Harrisburg, was here last Sunday, and administered confirmation to fifty-one persons in St. Francis Xavier's Church—assisted by the pastor, Rev. J. A. Boll. He also confirmed thirty-two in St. Ignatius's Church, in Buchanan Valley, on Monday morning, and twenty at Fairfield in the afternoon.

The new Bishop made a very favorable impression, and bids fair for a long course of usefulness in his church. He is a thorough scholar, a fine speaker, and has high administrative abilities.

Calendar Cards.—We are prepared to print Calendars for the year 1869, with Business Cards attached. They are done either on card board or paper, in one or a variety of colors. They are not only attractive because showy, but useful for daily reference throughout the year—and hence doubly valuable to those who avail themselves of this means of advertising. That the COMPILER office will do them neatly is guaranteed by the very handsome work constantly turned out. Send in your orders. Rates always reasonable.

Horse Thieves Caught.—On Monday night, about 11 o'clock, as several members of Jacob Plank's family, in Highland township, were returning from "spelling school" in the neighborhood, they found two strange horses tied in the lane. Suspecting something wrong, and hearing a noise in the barn, they went in, and discovered two strangers in the act of stealing oats. The thieves were at once "captured," and taken to the house, where they were kept under close guard until some one came to town to advise officer Bouzer of the arrest. He promptly went out, and in the morning the thieves were brought in; and taken before Esquire Cover, they were committed for the larceny of the oats.

One of them gave his name as Wm. H. Mangum, from Georgetown, (formerly from Canada,) and the other as John M. Longabaugh, from Juniata county. Their stories, however, differed considerably, and no doubt was entertained that they were horse thieves—confirmed, subsequently, by Longabaugh's disposition to turn "State's evidence."

In the evening, (Tuesday,) sure enough, handbills were received here describing the horses found in Plank's lane—one, a black, stolen from Abraham Heikes, in Newberry township, York county, and the other, a sorrel mare, stolen from Abraham Miller, in the same township—the former offering a reward of $25 and the latter $10. The horses were taken from the stables of these gentlemen on Saturday night.

We suppose that Mangum and Longabaugh will be first tried in York county for the stealing of the horses—after that here for the stealing of the oats.

Real Estate Sales.—Joseph Barker has sold his hotel property, in Littlestown, to Levi Harner, at $9,000. We understand that G. B. Yantis, a first class landlord, will take possession of the hotel in the spring.

Nicholas Weaver has sold to David Bluebaugh a part of the old Presbyterian church lot, on Washington street, 90 feet front, for $800, on which Mr. B. is building a neat cottage. About two years ago Mr. W. purchased the whole lot at private sale from the church trustees at $600. He has since sold off less than one-half of it for $1,100.

Richard Crouse has exchanged his farm of 170 acres in Freedom township, for property of heirs of James Cunningham, deceased, in the same township, 10 acres with improvements—receiving $21 per acre for his farm, and paying $1,100 for the Cunningham property.

Jeremiah Culp has sold to Aaron Sheely, 3 lots of ground on corner of Liberty and East Middle streets, for $1,100 cash.

Susan Culp has sold to Jacob Eckert her house and lot on York street for $1,375 cash.

Jacob King has sold his Warehouse at Granite Station, on the Gettysburg Railroad, to E. Eckenrode, for $2,400.

John C. Zouck has purchased from George Arnold a two-story brick house, with lot, in New Oxford, at $3,600 cash.

Shepard Stammers has sold his farm, on the York turnpike, one mile from Gettysburg—97 acres, with improvements—to John Eckert, for $6,600.

Elected.—William M. Hersh, Esq., formerly of this county, has been elected President of the Pittsburgh and Birmingham Passenger Railroad Company.

Wanted.—A few rooms wanted to rent. Apply at the COMPILER office.

Court Proceedings.—We continue our report of Quarter Sessions cases tried last week:

Com. vs. Alexander Brashears.—Seduction, fornication and bastardy. Defendant not appearing, recognizance forfeited, to be respited upon his appearance at the January Sessions.

Com. vs Wm. E. and John King.—Assault and battery upon Joseph Orndorff, at singing school. Verdict guilty, and defendants sentenced to pay a fine of $5 each and the costs of prosecution.

Com. vs. Theodore Richards and Wm. Blumhamm.—Larceny of handsaw, plane, chisels, &c., from John Kretz. Verdict guilty as to Blumhamm—not guilty as to Richards. Blumhamm sentenced to the Eastern Penitentiary for one year and three months.

Com. vs. Theodore Richards and Wm. Blumhamm.—Larceny of flour, blanket, &c., from Jacob Baker. Verdict guilty, and defendants sentenced—Blumhamm five days to the County Jail, and Richards sixty days to same.

Com. vs. Theodore Richards and Wm. Blumhamm.—Larceny of oats and buggy whip from David P. Beitler. Verdict guilty, and defendants sentenced—Richards thirty days to the County Jail and Blumhamm one day to same.

Com. vs. Theodore Richards and Wm. Blumhamm.—Surety of the peace, on oath of Jeremiah Frazer. After hearing, complaint dismissed.

Court adjourned on Friday night; did not, of course, sit on Thanksgiving day.

Second Week.—The last Legislature passed an act requiring the November and January terms of the Courts of this county to commence on the fourth Monday of the month, and continue each two weeks. The second week, or week for civil business, commenced last Monday. The following cases have thus far been disposed of:

Levi D. Maus, surviving partner of Maus & Swope, vs. John Coshun.—Action of debt, on book account, for mackerel sold to wife of defendant, and for $50 lent her. The defence was that the defendant was in the army at the time, and did not authorize the loan, but that the money was paid her as part of a legacy due her by one of the partners, who is now dead. But the jury, from some conversation of the defendant, inferred a promise by the husband to pay it back. Verdict for plaintiff for $58 83. Motion for a new trial.

Samuel B. Miller and Lemuel Malaun, Executors of Benjamin Malaun, deceased, vs. Virginia Wilson, late Virginia Malaun, and Francis J. Wilson, her husband.—Debt on three notes under seal, and a book account against the wife, contracted before her marriage with Mr. Wilson. The defendant plead payment, and proved that she had paid and settled with Benjamin Malaun for them before his death, but did not lift the notes from Mr. Malaun, among whose papers they were found after his death. Verdict for defendant.

Christian Keckler and Mary his wife, in right of said Mary, vs. Philip Bittinger, and against John F. Houck, Executor of Jacob Fidler, deceased.—Ejectment for 3 acres and 167 perches of land. Plaintiff claims, under the will of Jacob Fidler, who devised her certain land, part of his farm. The Executor set apart for her use a portion of the farm, but excluded from the draft the land in dispute. As the will contained a "latent ambiguity," or imperfect description, the Court admitted the declarations of the testator made after the writing of the will, to locate the land. Jury out—Thursday afternoon.

Deer Shot.—Col. John H. McClellan, one day last week, brought to town a very fine deer, the result of a hunt in the South Mountain by himself and John Hall. The Col. has our thanks for a choice slice—from the "discussion" of which we conclude that Adams county venison is, like almost everything else grown in this region, "hard to beat."

—Messrs. David Stover and G. W. Irwin returned, the other day, from Juniata county, with two spike bucks, very large for their age, shot during a visit to a former neighbor, Mr. John Bennett.

Frederick and Pennsylvania Line Railroad.—The people of Frederick city and county, says the Republican, will be happy to learn that President Loats and a number of the board of directors of this contemplated road, with Mr. Haydon as civil engineer, started out on Tuesday for the purpose of making a preliminary observation for a survey of the route, and placing it under contract as speedily as possible. There is a deep interest felt in regard to this road, and we are told that Mr. L., as president, is determined to push it through.

Killed.—We understand that Absalom Conrad, of Menallen township, was killed about two weeks ago in Georgetown, D. C., in a fracas with a man whose name we have not heard. We have looked in vain in our exchanges for particulars of the sad event. Mr. Conrad belonged to the 21st Pennsylvania Cavalry, during the war, and had previously served three full enlistments in the regular army. He was on his way to Washington, to try to receive admission into the Government Institution for old "regulars," and, stopping at night in Georgetown, became involved in the controversy in which he lost his life. His father resides in this county.—Star.

Barn Burned.—On Wednesday afternoon last, the barn of Mr. Samuel Grissinger, three or four miles from town, in North Middletown township, was discovered to be on fire. The barn, together with the crops of hay and grain, was entirely consumed, though the live stock, gears and agricultural implements were saved. The building is supposed to have been set on fire by some vagrants who were seen prowling around that neighborhood a short time previous. There ought to be some more stringent law enacted, by which these prowling miscreants who infest our county may be kept away. Our farmers are at their mercy, and though they may treat all who pass that way with uniform kindness, yet they are subject to depredation, insult and outrage every day.—Carlisle Volunteer.

Hog Cholera.—We learn that Messrs. William Walhey, R. E. Elden, and others in Menallen township, have lost a number of Hogs this season from the disease known as "Hog Cholera."—Star.

Singing Schools.—The season for singing schools and debating societies is at hand. We advise all the young people to organize at once, and have a good winter pass-time.

The Columbia Bridge.—The U. S. Railroad Register states that the new bridge across the Susquehanna river at Columbia—built on the piers of the old bridge which was burned by the militia in June, 1863, on the appearance of the Confederates on the west bank of the river—will be in condition to be crossed by trains with locomotive power about the first of January. The distance from Philadelphia to York, all rail, will be 95 miles, or four hours' time; and the new schedule will be a very positive improvement over any arrangements hitherto possible between Philadelphia and York, owing to the fact that there has never been a locomotive crossing over the Susquehanna river between Columbia and Wrightsville, the old bridge being only available for horse-power to haul cars across it—a process beset with delay and with failure to connect on time.

From Philadelphia to Columbia, 81 miles, the railroad, built by the State, was opened with a single track as long ago as April, 1834—an early date in railroad annals. From Wrightsville to York, 13 miles, the road was opened in April, 1840, as part of the Wrightsville, York and Gettysburg Railroad—a project wisely conceived and intended to connect with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad at Clear Spring, but never carried out, partly because of suspension of State appropriations for railroads, and so called "tapeworm" engineering.

In 1854 the York and Wrightsville Railroad was leased by the Northern Central Railway Company, which in turn was annexed, by the purchase of a majority share interest, to the system of roads operated by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. York, therefore, which now has direct railroad communication south to Baltimore and Washington, and north and west via Harrisburg, will hereafter have equally good facilities east to Philadelphia. York is the thriving business and money centre of a large and important county (the "white rose," separated from the "red rose" of Lancaster by the Susquehanna river,) and contains about 15,000 inhabitants, having increased its population 75 per cent. since 1860.

York also needs more direct communication with Gettysburg, and will no doubt compass that desideratum, through co-operation of interests to be benefitted, since any one can appreciate at a glance the advantages which would accrue to York from a link of road to Oxford, which would open to York a region now tributary to Hanover and thence to Baltimore; at the same time putting YORK on an east and west route as she now is on a north and south route.

The southern border of Pennsylvania is a good country, and it is a matter of moment to Philadelphia to cultivate improved and extended communication with it.

Daring Robbery.—On Wednesday night some daring burglars forced an entrance into the merchant tailoring establishment of Mr. Lawrence Hell, on Carlisle street, below the Savings Bank, and rifled it of a large amount of valuable custom work which had just been finished—including a costly wedding suit for a young gentleman of our town. The night was a most favorable one for burglarious work, being very dark, and a heavy rain falling. This is decidedly the boldest robbery that has been committed in our town for a long time. No clue has been had to the perpetrators.—Hanover Spectator.

Large Fox Killed.—We learn that some of our town sportsmen, while engaged in fox hunting last week among the Pigeon Hills, killed a large red fox, which measured three feet nine inches from the tip of the tail to the head. It was the largest of the species ever killed in this section.—Ib.

Property Sold.—The property of Wm. H. Wanamaker, on East Market street, four acres of land with 14 brick houses thereon, was sold at Sheriff's sale on last Saturday for $7,100, J. McDowell Sharpe, purchaser.—Chambersburg Spirit.

Harrisburg Patriot.—The Harrisburg Patriot, now published by B. F. Meyers & Co., is one of the ablest and soundest Democratic papers in the State. To such as desire more than their county paper we commend the Patriot. Its terms for the ensuing year are: One copy, $2 in advance, $2.50 if paid within 6 months, and $3 if paid within the year; four copies $7, ten copies $15, twenty copies $27, thirty copies $40.50, fifty copies $62.50, and one hundred copies $100.00—with one copy in each case to getter up of club.

Godey's Lady's Book promises increased attractions for the coming year—for which see prospectus in another column. This old favorite still keeps the lead, and well it deserves to.

The Little Corporal makes its regular visits to our table, freighted with original matter for "boys and girls, and for older people who have young hearts." As a magazine for the "young folks," nothing could be more interesting. Published at Chicago, by Alfred L. Sewell, at $1 a year, or 10 cents for a single number.

Why he Didn't.—"Why don't you trade with me?" said a close-fisted tradesman to a friend, the other day. The reply was very characteristic: "You have never asked me, sir. I have looked all through the COMPILER for an invitation in the shape of an advertisement and found none. I never go where I am not invited."

The Farmers.—The farmers are about through with their fall work in this section. They are among the happy few laboring for a living, who have a season of rest. Alas! such is not the printer's fortune—to him comes no hour of rest in summer or winter, in sunshine or shade.

THE Dubuque (Iowa,) Times tells this story. A few day ago three maimed brothers from Minnesota crossed on the ferry-boat to this side. One had lost both arms and legs, and the other two both legs. They related to Commodore Yates the following fearful incident: Last winter, the three brothers started out to a singing-school, with three young ladies, in an ox-sled. While on the way a heavy snow storm came up and caused them to lose their way. After wandering about for hours they were finally "snowed in" on the prairie. Locked up in that snowy prison the three women froze to death, and the brothers were so badly frozen as to result in their present maimed condition.

FORNEY continues to write editorially by the yard to prove that Grant is "all right." This may be the case, but if it is, it ought not to take so much time and trouble to prove it.

Just from the City.—Theo. C. Norris has just returned from the city with a very large and cheap lot of Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, and Gentlemen's Wear, of every description. He keeps nothing but gentlemen's wear, and persons in want of Over Coats, Dress Coats, Pants, Vests, Boots and Shoes, or under wear of any kind, can do better at Norris's than at any other store in the county. His stock of Hats and Caps cannot be beat outside of the cities.

Also a large stock of Cavalry Over Coats, Infantry Over Coats and Jackets on hand, just from the Q. M. Department, and warranted perfect. Persons in want of these goods had better call soon, as they are very scarce. Don't forget to call at Norris's Store. 1t

The Morning Glory.—Col. C. H. Buehler has received a large assortment of these famous base-burning Stoves, which on the score of economy, cleanliness, easy management, and general utility, stand unrivalled and defy competition. The great demand for them last season taxed the capacity of the manufacturers to meet the demand. They are much improved and will doubtless ere long take the place of all other stoves for parlor, office, store and shop. Call and look at them, at the Wareroom on the corner of Carlisle and Railroad streets, opposite the depot.

Also, on hand a full assortment of the best varieties of COOKING STOVES, including the Spear, Noble Cook, Waverly, Oriental, Washing, Barley Sheaf, Prince Royal, Royal Cook, Excelsior, &c. &c., all WARRANTED to be good bakers. If not satisfactory, they can be returned and the money refunded. Also, a large assortment of Hollow Ware and Tin Ware, Doty's Washing Machine and Universal Wringer. Call and examine. tf

A Fine Head of Hair is such an indispensable adjunct to beauty that no one who prizes good looks should neglect to use the best preparations to be had to increase its growth, restore its color or prevent its falling off. Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia is one of the most effectual articles for the purpose we have ever seen, besides being one of the most delightful hair dressings and beautifiers extant. It is free from the stinky and gummy properties of most other dressings, and being delightfully perfumed recommends itself to every lady or gentleman using fine toilet articles. Nov. 27. 4t

Now Is The Time.—Housekeepers can economize by laying in their winter coal at once, as freights are now lower than they will be a month hence, and Coal will necessarily rise. Persons desiring to save money, will do well to call at once on Col. C. H. Buehler, who is prepared to furnish all kinds of Stove, Blacksmith and Lime-burner's Coal at lowest market prices. tf

Photographs.—For good Photographs, go to Tipton & Myers's. Also Frames, Albums, &c., very low. Tyson's old stand. tf

Successful, Because of Superior Merit.—Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER or DRESSING, (in one bottle). Every Druggist sells it. Price One Dollar. Nov. 6.1m

GAMBLING IN GERMANY AND NEW YORK.—A New York correspondent maintains that the gambling at Baden-Baden, Germany, is not nearly so reckless as that observable in Wall street, New York. He alludes to an elegant church building in the latter city, towards the erection of which one young man gave $40,000. This young man owned a fine country seat on the Hudson, an elegant establishment in New York; had his fast team on the road, made, it was said, seldom less than $25,000 a day. Thirty days ago his name was good for any amount at the banks. His country house has gone, he has given up his city establishment, and he has not now money enough to buy a bag of oats for his fast team. Erie and the Pacific Mail carried them under.

THE semi-centennial anniversary of the establishment of the Independent Order of Odd-Fellows in the United States, will occur on the 26th of April next. The event will be celebrated by a great national fete in Philadelphia. The programme includes an immense procession of members of the order in full regalia. A Committee of the Grand Lodge is already engaged in the work of making the preparations.

THERE seems to be a mutiny in General Geary's camp. Fitzgerald's City Item, always intensely Radical, last week paid the following tribute to Geary:

Poor Geary is traveling and begging day and night to secure a re-nomination. He coaxes, implores, threatens, whines and cries. Never before has such a spectacle been seen in this State. Mr. W. W. Ketchum and General Harry White, of Indiana, are his competitors—both abler and better men, and neither of them liars.

A FEW days since a farmer in Iowa took a bag of buckwheat to the mill, and the miller on opening it found therein another bag containing $370 in gold. The farmer subsequently claimed his own, saying that he had placed it in the buckwheat four years before, and had brought the wrong bag to mill.

Mother, thou art gone to rest—
We will not weep for thee—
For thou art now where oft on earth
Thy spirit longed to be.
Mother, thou art gone to rest—
Thine is an earthly tomb—
But Jesus summoned thee away—
Thy Savior called thee home.
Mother, thou art gone to rest—
Thy toil and cares are o'er,
And sorrow, pain and suffering now
Shall ne'er distress thee more.
Mother, thou art gone to rest—
Thy sins are all forgiven,
And saints in light have welcomed thee
To share the joys of heaven. M. J. S.

Amongst Atlantic Cables, steam navigation and those progressions of science and art that mark the nineteenth century, not the least useful are Dr. Ayer's medicines. They take rank among the benefactions of mankind, from the rapidity and certainty with which they cure. Try AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL on a cough and it is gone. What skin disease or impurities of the blood withstand AYER'S SARSAPARILLA? AYER'S PILLS are the perfection of a purgative—every family should have them as almost every family does. Not a trifle to be thankful for are good medicines and the knowledge how to use them for protection from disease. These Dr. Ayer's preparations and publications furnish, and we do not hesitate to commend them.—St. Louis Leader. 1t

A NEW REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.—A Physician who had Consumption for several years, with frequent bleedings of the lungs, cured himself with a medicine unknown to the profession, when his case appeared hopeless. He is the only physician who has used it in his own person, or who has any knowledge of its virtues, and he can ascribe the degree of health he now enjoys to nothing but the use of his medicine; and nothing but utter despair and entire extinction of all hope of recovery, together with a want of confidence in all others, induced him to hazard the experiment. To those suffering with any disease of the Lungs he proffers a treatment he confidently believes will eradicate the disease. Medicine sent by express. Send for a circular or call on

A Town Entered and Sacked—Murder of Citizens.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 28.—The Appeal's Arkansas correspondent says: "On the 30th instant, a body of two hundred men, claiming to be (Radical State) Militia, entered the town at Centre Point, Sevier county, arrested all the inhabitants, marched them into an open field, placed a guard over them and then proceeded to sack the town, after which they left."

The next day the citizens of an adjoining county flocked into the town and a meeting was gotten up to express the sentiments of the people in regard to the outrage. While the meeting was in progress the same body of men dashed into the town and opened an indiscriminate fire upon the assembly, shooting down a number of them and arresting three of the oldest and best citizens, named Hesher, Anderson and Gilbett, and carried them out into a field and shot them. The band of desperadoes still hold the town.

NASHVILLE, November 24.—Very grave matters are engaging the attention of the Radical Tennessee Legislature, as may be judged by the character of some bills introduced to-day, and which passed their first reading. One bill is for the benefit of Mrs Granville Lindslay and others, and provides—First, that said Mrs. Lindslay shall receive seventy-five dollars annually in consideration of recently giving birth to three children at one confinement; and, secondly, providing for a like annuity to all other Tennessee women who shall in future be equally prolific. In its present shape the bill does not discriminate in favor of "loyal" mothers, but it is well understood that before its final passage a clause will be added peremptorily debarring "rebels" from any participation in its benefits and embracing colored matrons in its beneficial provisions.

The bill was introduced in good faith and is likely to pass.

Another bill was passed, providing that no lawyers except those who gain the cases they may be engaged in, shall be entitled to receive any fees whatever. This is now on its third reading in the House, but will be stoutly opposed in the Senate.

THE Czar has issued an ukase, by virtue of which nine-tenths of the drinking saloons now existing in the Russian empire are to be suppressed.

THE Dispatch says 1,000 bushels of California wheat have just been received by one of the mills of Richmond.

TESTIMONIAL.

Philadelphia, March 10th, 1868.

JACOB SCHEETZ, Esq.—My Dear Sir: Some eight months ago, when suffering from great nervous prostration, the result of exposure and overtasked energies, I was induced by you (an old friend) to take a tonic your celebrated Bitter Cordial; and so agreeably surprising have been its beneficial effects, that I cannot refrain from thus bearing testimony in its favor. As a beverage, it is as pleasant and delightful as a glass of rich dark brown sherry; as an appetizer before meals, perfectly magical; and as a digester of food, the most potent compound I ever knew. Altogether, I consider it one of the happiest combinations of medicinal herbs ever offered to the public as a curative. I most cheerfully and confidently recommend it to every sufferer from Debility, Dyspepsia and Rheumatism. As a substitute for the villainous alcoholic and vinous concoctions imbibed at too many of the public bars of the present day, it must also prove a blessing.

Very truly yours,
ALEXANDER W. BLACKBURN,
Fire Marshal.

PURIFY YOUR BLOOD!

LONDON

BLOOD PANACEA.

The Great Alterative and Blood Purifier.

IT is the most perfect vegetable compound of Alteratives, Tonics, Diuretics and Diaphoretics, making it the most effective, invigorating, renovating and blood cleansing cordial known to the world.

LONDON BLOOD PANACEA. For the cure of Scrofula or King's Evil, Cutaneous Diseases, Erysipelas, Boils, Pimples and Blotches on the Face, Sore Eyes, Scald Head, Tetter Affections, Old and Stubborn Ulcers, Rheumatic Disorders, Yellow Jaundice, Salt Rheum, White Swellings, Mercurial Diseases, General Debility, Palpitation and Fluttering at the Heart, Consumption, Asthma, Syphilis and Syphilitic Affections, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Pains in the Back, Dropsy, Female Complaints, &c. To the broken down female it gives life and energy by restoring the lost powers of nature, when health again succeeds the feeble form and pallid cheek of the sufferer.

Nothing can be more surprising than its invigorating effects on the human system. Persons all weakness and lassitude, by using the PANACEA, at once become robust and full of energy under its influence.

Ladies who have pale complexions and are dark about the eyes, blotches and pimples on the face, rough skin or freckles, and are "out of spirits," should use a bottle or two of LONDON BLOOD PANACEA. It will cleanse your blood, remove the freckles and blotches, and give you animation, sparkling eyes, fine spirits and a beautiful complexion. Try it.

AS AN APERIENT,

There is no medicine so much in favor with those who are acquainted with their action as Roback's Blood Pills; they are safe, pleasant and mild in their operation, and are purely vegetable; can be taken by children as well as adults; try them.

SLEEPLESS NIGHTS.

As a remedy to soothe all nervous excitement, and in its truest sense, a nervine, there is, perhaps, no medicine extant which is received with so much favor as Roback's Stomach Bitters; a wine glass full on going to bed is all that is required to produce sound and healthful sleep.

ERYSIPELAS,

Or, St. Anthony's Fire, can be effectually eradicated by the use of Roback's Blood Purifier in conjunction with Roback's Blood Pills.

OPTHALMIA,

Or, Inflammation of the Eyes, not unfrequently arises from a disordered state of the stomach; a few doses of Roback's Blood Pills will, in most cases, effect a cure by removing the cause.

KEEP YOUR BLOOD PURE.

There are no remedies, now before the public, so well calculated to purify the blood and reconstruct (so to speak) the whole system as Roback's Blood Purifier, Blood Pills and Stomach Bitters.

LEUCORRHOEA,

Or, Whites, which follow local debility and constitutional weakness, can be effectually cured by the use of Roback's Stomach Bitters. Do not let the druggist sell you any other remedy, as these Bitters are prepared with especial reference to this complaint, and are warranted to cure.

BAD TASTE

In the mouth in the morning is one of the symptoms of a bilious condition or disordered state of the liver and should not, for a single day, be neglected, as it is but the premonitory symptom of a train of evils and the very seeds of disease. Procure at once Roback's Blood Pills, administer them according to the directions accompanying each box, and the difficulty and danger of disease will at once be removed.

NOT A BEVERAGE.

Unlike most of the Bitters of the present day, Dr. Roback's are not intended as a pleasant stimulating whiskey beverage, but are perfectly medicinal, containing only sufficient pure bourbon whiskey to hold in solution the medicinal extractive matter from which they are composed.

WHO SELLS THEM?

NATURE'S GREAT RESTORER.

SCHEETZ'S
CELEBRATED
BITTER CORDIAL.

THIS medical preparation is now offered to the public as a reliable substitute for the many worthless compounds which now flood the market. It is purely vegetable, composed of various Herbs, gathered from the great storehouse of nature, and selected with the utmost care. It is not recommended as a CURE ALL, but by its direct and salutary influence upon the Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, it acts both as a preventive and cure for many of the diseases to which those organs are subject. It is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results. It is certainly prompt and speedy remedy in DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, BOWEL COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, FAINTINGS, SICK HEADACHE, &c. For CHILLS and FEVERS of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes.

GENTLEMEN'S furnishing Goods all kinds and styles at NORRIS'.

BEST INVESTMENTS
THE
First Mortgage Bonds
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC
Railroad Company,

850 MILES COMPLETED!

A limited amount of the First Mortgage Bonds of the Union Pacific Railroad Company are offered to the public, as one of the safe and most profitable investments.

1. They are a first mortgage upon the large and most important railroad in the country.

2. By law they can be issued to the Company only as the road is completed, so that they always represent a real value.

3. Their amount is limited by act of Congress to Fifty Million Dollars, on the entire Pacific line, or an average of less than $30,000 per mile.

4. Hon. E. D. Morgan, of the United States Senate, and Hon. Oakes Ames, of the United States House of Representatives, are the trustees for the bondholders, to see that all their interests are protected.

5. Five Government Directors, appointed by the President of the United States, are responsible to the country for the management of its affairs.

6. Three United States Commissioners must certify that the road is well built and equipped and in all respects a first-class railway, before any bonds can be issued upon it.

7. The United States Government lends the Company its own bonds to the same amount that the company issues, for which it takes a second mortgage as its security.

8. As additional aid, it makes an absolute donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, lying upon each side of the road.

9. The bonds pay six per cent. in gold, and the principal is also payable in gold.

10. The earnings from the local or way business were over FOUR MILLION DOLLARS in the year, which, after paying operating expenses, was much more than sufficient to pay the interest. These earnings will be vastly increased on the completion of the entire road in 1870.

11. No political action can reduce the rate of interest. It must remain for thirty years, at 6 percent. per annum, in gold, now equal to between eight and nine per cent. in currency. The principal is then payable in gold. If a bond, with such guarantees, were issued by the government, its market price would not be less than from 20 to 25 per cent. premium. As these bonds are issued under Government direction and supervision, upon what is very largely a Government work, they must ultimately approach Government prices. No other corporate bonds are made so secure.

12. The issue will soon be exhausted. The sales have sometimes been half a million a day, and nearly twenty millions have already been sold. About ten millions more are offered. It is not improbable that at some time not far distant, all the remainder of the bonds the Company can issue will be taken by parties who will be willing to have them drawn from the market, except at a large advance. The long time, the high rate of interest and the perfect security make these bonds very valuable for export.

All the predictions which the officers of the Company have made in relation to the progress and business success of their enterprise, or to the value and security of the bonds, have been more than confirmed, and they therefore suggest that parties who desire to invest in their bonds will find it to their advantage to do so at once.

The price for the present is 102 and accrued interest at the rate of six per cent. from July 1, in currency. Subscriptions will be received in Gettysburg by the FIRST NATIONAL BANK and GETTYSBURG NATIONAL BANK, and in New York AT THE COMPANY'S OFFICE, No. 20 NASSAU ST.,

AND BY

JOHN J. CISCO & SON, BANKERS, NO. 59 WALL ST.,

And by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.

Bonds sent free, but parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A NEW PAMPHLET AND MAP was issued Oct. 1st, containing a report of the progress of the work to that date, and a more complete statement in relation to the value of the bonds than can be given in an advertisement, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices or to any of the advertised agents.

Hon. JAMES NOXON, Syracuse, N. Y.

OFFICERS.

A. G. CURTIN, President.
N. MICKLES, Vice President.
GEORGE CONANT, Secretary.
GEORGE ELLIS, (Cashier National Bank of the Commonwealth), Treasurer.
Hon. A. K. McCLURE, Philadelphia, Solicitor.

The Chinese Government having (through the Hon. Anson Burlingame) conceded to this Company the privilege of connecting the great seaports of the Empire by submarine electric telegraph cable, we propose commencing operations in China, and laying down a line of nine hundred miles at once, between the following ports, viz:

	Population.
Canton	[illegible]
Macoa	[illegible]
Hong Kong	[illegible]
Swatow	[illegible]
Amoy	[illegible]
Foo-chow	[illegible]
Wan Chu	[illegible]
Ningpo	[illegible]
Hang Cheau	[illegible]
Shanghai	1,000
Total	[illegible]

These ports have a foreign commerce of [illegible] and an enormous domestic trade, beside which we have the immense interior commerce of the Empire, radiating from these points, through its canals and navigable rivers.

The cable being laid, this Company proposes erecting land lines, and establishing a speedy and trustworthy means of communication, which must command there, as everywhere else, the communications of the Government, of business, and of social life, especially in China. She has no postal system, and her only means now of communicating information is by couriers on land, and by steamers on water.

The Western World knows that China is a very large country, in the main densely peopled; but few yet realize that she contains more than a third of the human race. The latest returns made to her central authorities for taxing purposes by the local magistrates make her population Four Hundred and Fifteen Millions, and that is more likely to be under than over the actual aggregate. Nearly all of these, who are over ten years old, can and do read and write. Her civilization is peculiar, but her literature is as extensive as that of Europe. China is a land of teachers and traders, and the latter are exceedingly quick to avail themselves of every proffered facility for procuring early information. It is observed in California that the Chinese make great use of the telegraph, though it there transmits messages in English alone. To-day great numbers of fleet steamers are owned by Chinese merchants, and used by them exclusively for the transmission of early intelligence. If the telegraph we propose connecting all their great seaports, were now in existence, it is believed that its business would pay the cost within the first two years of its successful operation, and would steadily increase thereafter.

No enterprise commends itself as in a greater degree remunerative to capitalists, and at the same time an almost national importance commercially, politically and evangelically.

☞The stock of this company has been unqualifiedly recommended to capitalists and business men, as a desirable investment by editorial articles in the New York Herald, Tribune, World, Times, Post, Express, Independent, and in the Philadelphia North American, Press, Ledger, Inquirer, Age, Bulletin and Telegraph.

Shares of this Company, to a limited number, may be obtained at $50 each, $10 payable down, $15 on the 1st of November, and $25 payable in monthly instalments of $2 50 each commencing December 1, 1868, on application to

DREXEL & CO.,

81 South Third Street, Philadelphia.

☞Shares can be obtained in Gettysburg on application to J. E. BAIR, Banker, who is authorized to receive subscriptions, and can give all necessary information on the subject.
